

BEAVER CREEK, COLORADO

Welcome to the Extraordinary!

Beaver Creek is home to four village areas, each offering a unique experience, world-class restaurants, luxury lodging, endless shopping, and exciting events. Guests will find convenient on-site access to ski and snowboard schools, a Nordic center, equipment rentals, ice rink and more.

Beaver Creek is a fully developed destination resort complete with three mountain experiences and an army of top pros at its Ski and Snowboard School. From heads of state to heads of households, it is a place that people visit to leave the world behind, offering privacy, an intimate mountain setting and is recognized for providing arguably the best guest service in the world with the promise of "Not exactly roughing it".

Beaver Creek Ski Resort visitors will find 2,082 skiable acres, 3,340 feet of vertical and a summit elevation of 11,440 feet. The base elevation is 8,000 feet. Skiers and riders have access to 167 different trails serviced by 24 lifts. Average snowfall is 325 inches. 19% is rated Beginner, 43% is Intermediate, 21% is Expert and 5% is Extreme!

Piccadilly is staying at the Borders Lodge, 2-bedroom 2-bath condos (King and 2 twins) with ski-in/ski-out luxury. Private ski lockers, a kitchen, an outdoor heated pool, and hot tub are all included! Our pricing includes airfare, ground transfers, wine and cheese party, convenient lodging and all the fun that goes with being a Piccadillian on one of our trips.

Lodging: The Borders Lodge, 2B/2B (K/TT) based on 4 per unit, ski in/ski out

Flights: United Non-Stop to and from Denver

Dates: 2/10 – 2/17/24

EPIC Pass Needed

Cost $ 1,620* (thru 9/7/23)

$ 1,670* (after 9/7/23)

EPIC PASS $ 465.00 for 5-day EPIC pass/lift ticket. Note that a rebate is available if purchased online from Group Travel Simplicity (GTS/WSS)

Trip Leader: Sandi Siakel

Contact info: ssssiakel@gmail.com

Cell: 630-399-5862

 Lifts not included in this pricing. Beaver Creek is on the EPIC Pass, and it is more economical and flexible to purchase an EPIC Pass separately.*